The Jamshidpour Indian woolen rugs are made in Pathankot city of India and feature an inspired blend of classical Persian motifs and contemporary stylings. Light colors, advanced hand-knotting technique leading to a high number of knots per square inch and exquisite design sense have made these Hand knotted woolen rugs cherished products in home decor. Their design and color schemes are shaped by the artists' own independent judgment. No wonder then, that the art of weaving carpets has percolated here for generations and these Indian craftsmen have been responsible for some of the greatest specimens since the medieval period.
