MOOD Persian carpets are very rare and highly valued amongst collectors. MOOD persian carpets are an excellent investment as they will appreciate in value becoming valuable antiques. MOUD (MOOD) rugs and carpets are excellent. They are highly prized because they are one of the best-looking carpets in IRAN and the world. MOUD (MOOD) carpets are among the best looking and finest quality carpets. They are therefore in high demand and are more costly than carpets from neighboring areas.

MASHAD and Birjandj are two cities in Khorasan province in eastern Iran where Mood carpets are generally woven.. Rugs from these cities are world renown for their unique style and extreme smoothness as the wool is often made of velvet and silk. The majority of Mood rugs are woven using the Persian or asymmetrical knot. Their beautiful weavings go with almost any decor, such as Traditional, Sheraton and Queen Anne.

MOUD or MOOD is a village just southeast of BIRJAND in east of IRAN. Moud produces one of the best quality rugs in eastern IRAN.
